

2023 Dividend Announcement

Ironwood Institutional Multi-Strategy Fund LLC (“IIMS”) distributed a dividend to members of record on December 4, 2023. Unless an election was made to receive the distribution in cash, the dividend was reinvested in the fund on December 29, 2023. Cash distributions will be wired before January 30, 2024. The dividend distribution amount is as follows:

Character	Dividend per unit	Dividend as a % of 11/30/23 NAV
Ordinary*	$ 50.96	4.30%
LT capital gain	$ 5.58	0.47%
Total	$ 56.54	4.77%

* 0.25% of the Ordinary Dividend will be reported as Qualified Dividend Income on Form 1099-DIV

The dividend distribution will be reflected in IIMS’ December 2023 reporting cycle. On the ex-dividend date (December 29, 2023), the Net Asset Value (“NAV”) per unit decreases by the dividend per unit amount. If a member participates in the dividend reinvestment plan, the member is issued additional units equal to the dollar amount of the member’s dividend distribution divided by the ex-dividend NAV per unit. The dividend distribution and reinvestment does not change the value of the member’s account, the member simply has additional units valued at the lower ex-dividend NAV per unit. If a member elected to receive a cash distribution, the member’s account value decreases by the amount of the dividend paid in cash.

A member’s dividend distribution amount may be less than or greater than a member’s economic year to date performance.

The dividend will be reported to members on Form 1099-DIV in February 2024 and will be considered taxable income in 2023 regardless of whether it is reinvested or paid in cash. Non-reportable members will not receive a Form 1099-DIV.

The rules regarding dividend distribution calculations are complex. Please contact Ironwood Investor Relations (ir@ironwoodpartners.com) with any questions.
